ject Special Technical scholarship of Rs 15 a month for a period of 3 years (Veterinary Scholarship)

The DPI in his letter No. 73 dated 18th Feb 03 recommends that H Raghavendra Rao may be granted a scholarship as above to enable him to study in the Veterinary College, Bangalore.

The DPI proposes that the charge may be met from the savings available in the budget (The provision of the Engg scholarships of the year 1902 which has not been availed of)

submitted for orders to V[illegible]

Kgl 28/21 3)

Out of the 2 Engineering scholarships amounting to Rs per annum of the year 1902 which were not awarded of, Rs 10 have been recommended by the DPI on behalf of one Krishnarao for studying in Technical Institute at Bangalore

(2) Rs 30 have been recommended by the DPI on behalf of one Venkatasubbiah for studying in Technical Institute at Bangalore

Offer to be given to Venkatasubbiah as an additional to the 6 Rs scholarships sanctioned £ 1 lac for studying Electrical Engineering in the Poona College.

Out of the balance of Rs 20 lacs remains, the Surgeon General recommends that Rs 15 lacs be given to the present officer & Rs 5 lacs for studying in the Veterinary College Bombay

There does not seem to be much scope of employment for these men either in Mysore or Br. India & I am not sure of it is desirable in the circumstances to encourage this study. May the proposal be rejected on this ground?

At present there are no regular rules regarding the grant of Technical scholarships Each case is dealt with on its own merits So it is not possible to say if any amount is available out of the sanctioned scholarships

H Raghavendra Rao has been recommended by the DPI for a scholarship of Rs 15 a month, and the charge was proposed to be met from the savings available out of the amount sanctioned for Engineering scholarships || In this connection the Diwan wanted to know what became of a young man of

Subd

There is no regular scale of scholarships sanctioned for technical instruction (other than Engineering, medical & agricultural instruction)

Same Note in row a

The three medical scholar-ships of the year 1902 have been availed of Hence no savings

Of the 8 Engineering scholar (1902)
-ships of the value of Rs 30 each, the provision of one scholarship viz Rs 30 was utilized for increasing the scholar ship of S Venkata subba setty, a Mysore Student, to Rs 60 to enable him to go to Roorkee to study for Electrical Engineering.

12 - The other two scholar-ships were awarded to two Mysore students But they did not avail themselves of the scholar-ships granted to them

The provision of one of the two scholarships viz, Rs 30 was again utilised to increase the scholarship of the same Venkatasubba Setti to Rs 90 And out of the remaining provision of Rs 30, a scholar-ship of Rs 10 a month has been sanctioned to a Mysore student (Gopal Krishna Rao) to enable him to study in the Bombay Jubilee Technical Institute Thus a balance of Rs 20 is left out of the sanctioned amount for Engineering scholarships

Again, the two 13 (of 1902)
agricultural scholar
- ships of the year 1902 (of the value of Rs were not availed of 10 each)
In fact there were no
applicants for them
Out of the available
provision of Rs 20 p.m. two p. per mensem Scholarships of the value of Rs 10 each have been sanctioned to two Mysore
Students (Shamanna,
Bellary Iyengar, & D & Ananda Rao) to enable them to study in the Jubilee Technical
Institute, Bombay

Thus the provision of the two agricultural scholarships of the year 1902 have been otherwise
utilized Hence no savings

It was out of Rs 20
the savings still available as referred to above (the balance still remaining untelized out the provision of Rs 90 sanctioned for Engineering

The medical scholarships have been fully utilised. The Agricultural Scholarships have been otherwise disposed of.

Of the 90 Rs tuition homes annually for Engineering Scholarships, Rs 70 have been otherwise utilised and Rs 20 are available. It is out of this that the Gl of Rs proposes and I recommend that a scholarship of Rs 15 be given to Raghavendra Rao such appropriation is in accordance with precedents. No extra cost
